Big Gain in Savings Leader is Denounced Famous Warrior Here

CHARLEROI INHABITANTS DISPROVE ASPERSIONS CAST UPON THE TOWN

DISTINGUISHED OFFICER OF RECENT BOER WAR A VISITOR IN CHARLEROI

Savings Deposits in the Three Banks Indicate Thrifty Character of Local People.

HAVE YOU YOUR $132.

Per Capita Share of Interest Bearing Deposits is Large—Good Increase During Past Six Months.

In view of the aspersions cast upon Charleroi during the past campaign, because of it being the home of Governor-elect J. K. Tener, something is needed to disprove these detractors, and it is found in the statement of the three Charleroi banks, all of which are institutions of the most substantial kind. These statements which were made at the close of business this week, show that contrary to the assertions of dyspeptic newspapers, this is not a place inhabited chiefly by booze drinkers, who spend their hard earned money in the saloons, but a town whose population is composed largely of thrifty, saving people.

The savings departments of the banks are leading features of the business here. On interest at the present time, as shown by the statements of the First National Bank, the Bank of Charleroi and the Charleroi Savings and Trust company, is the sum of $1,322,767.03. This represents the savings of the 10,000 or more people composing the population of Charleroi, and means a per capita savings of $132.27.

During the past six months there has been a substantial gain in the money placed on deposit to bear interest. The Bank of Charleroi made a gain of about $28,000 and both the First National bank and the Charleroi Savings and Trust company made gains of approximately $25,000. This shows a total gain in deposits of $78,000 interest bearing money.

Charleroi banks rank high among other institutions in the country, and it is entirely due to the wise and careful methods of banking. The officers and directors are all well known and trusted business men, fully competent to handle the money placed in their care.

Episcopal Service

Owing to the visiting clergyman's inability to keep his engagement here tomorrow, "Missionary Rally Day," and the fact that it was impossible for Rev. Shey to find an extra supply for this emergency, the services at St. Mary's church will be read morning and evening by a regularly licensed lay reader, J. B. White. It will be necessary for Rev. Shey to keep his appointment. However, a stirring missionary address will be delivered at St. Mary's church by a prominent Pittsburgh clergyman the first Sunday in December, instead of tomorrow as previously arranged.

MINER COMES TO THE DEFENSE OF FEEHAN IN STRONG ARTICLE

Says That the Miners Cannot Rely Upon Radical Pittsburg Newspaper for True Statements of Facts.

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

Sir:—The Pittsburg Leader, one of the supposed supporters of the workingman, a rank traitor which is masquerading as a friend to labor, when in reality it is being paid by the operators of the Irwin field at this time to vilify President Feehan and the present administration. The Leader has become famous as an advocate of justice. It did good work for the miners in the Irwin field in exposing the tyranny of the coal operators in that particular field. But when the operators got a hold on it the press was throttled as far as any news coming from the strike zone was concerned, for we have had no news from the Irwin field for several weeks. Many of our miners have been wondering why this silence. The reason is very plain as is stated above. President Feehan was offered $10,000 and later $40,000 and further to name his price, but he refused to be bribed. He was then told that thousands of dollars would be spent to defeat him, and that he would be discredited by the press of which the Leader seems to be the one which has been given the contract. I have been a reader of the Leader for the last six years, but from now on I am through with it and its circulation will be greatly reduced in the future as far as our miners are concerned. Yours for a square deal, A Miner.

FEENEY IS GRATEFUL

Assemblyman-Elect Expresses Thanks to Supporters.

William Feeney of Charleroi, candidate elect for Assembly, who was primarily the miners' choice, and around whose candidacy all the citizens of the county rallied, in speaking of the result of the recent election said:

"I highly appreciate the excellent work that was done in my behalf by my staunch and loyal friends at the recent election, and sincerely thank every voter who cast his vote in my behalf on Tuesday, November 8. I shall be a staunch supporter of honest government. Equal rights shall be my motto. I shall stand for those things that believe to be right, and for the greatest good to the greatest number."

"I wish to thank my friends among organized labor for their unselfish work in my behalf, and shall try to make my course in Harrisburg such as will cause them no regret for the splendid support they gave me."

CINCINNATI MINE IS CLOSED DOWN

Operators Discover Repairs Are Necessary in Workings.

SAFETY LAMPS REQUESTED

The Cincinnati mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company closed yesterday for an indefinite time, according to the statements of the company for the making of repairs. Recently the fire bosses of the mines made an appeal for the use of safety lamps in the mine, it being stated that there was considerable gas in the working, and therefore without safety lamps being used, there was considerable danger. There was some talk over the matter, which finally ended in the mine being closed.

MEN OF CHURCH BANQUET

Methodists Hold Interesting Social Affair.

GOOD ADDRESSES MADE

With about 84 men present, partly representing Methodism in Charleroi, a banquet was held Friday night in the Sunday School rooms of the M. E. church. The affair was arranged by the official board of the church in an effort to stimulate the work that the church is doing here and to increase the interest among the male members of the congregation.

H. J. Booth was the toastmaster and after the good things prepared by members of the Ladies League had been disposed of, opened the program with an address, in which he spoke of the opportunities for the men, and reviewed conditions from a business man's standpoint. He called upon J. A. Hepler, who made a report of the treasury, and upon T. Lindsay who made a steward's report. Rev. John H. Miller, the district superintendent of the Pittsburgh conference, then made a masterful address in which he spoke of the many things which the men should do, and following the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" Rev. Harry N. Cameron, pastor of the First Methodist church at Washington, spoke. He was followed in turn by the local pastor, Rev. F. A. Richards, and Rev. Lyons, the latter a pastor at Roscoe. Short talks were given by C. C. Crill, John Rodgers and W. A. Swick.

General Epke Rolf DeWall, of Boer Army Visiting America for a Number of Weeks.

TO SPEAK AT TURNER HALL

Was Exiled From South Africa at the Close of War and is Daily Expecting Word to Return.

A distinguished visitor is registered at the Hotel Myford today. This is General Epke Rolf DeWall, an ex-commander and survivor of the Boer war, a statesman and an exile. General DeWall will remain in Charleroi over Sunday and will deliver a lecture tonight at Turner Hall for the entertainment of the members and their families. The lecture will be delivered in German.

This sturdy Dutch soldier and statesman is a nephew of Ex-President Paul Kruger and General Peter Hubert, of the South African Republic, and descendant of one of the eighteen original families that left Europe in 1603 and went to South Africa in an effort to find a country where they could worship God in accordance with their faith. His father helped to frame the original constitution of the Boer Republic, and his ancestors were always among those who were pressed backward by the encroachments of the English.

General DeWall was educated in Germany and received the degree of M. D. at the Heidelberg University. At the outbreak of the war he was a member of the Boer Parliament and Secretary of State. His promotion was rapid in the army and he soon attained to the rank of General. He was wounded four times. November 2, eleven years ago, he rode into a body of British lancers, who had dismounted and were waiting in ambush. He turned when he discovered his danger, but the lancers mounted and charged and he was wounded in the leg and his horse shot from under him and he was taken prisoner. He lost four sons, his wife and two daughters during the war. His sons died in battle and his wife and daughters in concentration camps established by the British, where he claims they were subjected to unspeakable indignities at the hands of the soldiers.

After the war General DeWall was one of about 3,000 Boers who would not take the oath of allegiance to the British government. They were exiled from the country and aided by the Red Cross Society of Europe and America, came to the New World, and settled in Texas, New Mexico and (Continued on Second Page).

No Grounds for Contest

Speaking of the avowed intention of Henry H. Wilson, the defeated Democratic Keystone candidate for Congress to contest the seat of Charles Matthews, the Republican candidate who was elected, the New Castle Herald says:

"Attorney Henry Wilson of Beaver county, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Twenty-fourth district, who was defeated at the polls by Congressman-elect Charles Matthews of this city, announces that he will contest the result and lay the matter before the Sixty-third Congress. All this makes very interesting reading, but Mr. Wilson is probably just talking to get it out of his system, rather than with any real intention of actually attempting any such thing."

"For there is no ground upon which he could make a successful contest. Charles Matthews was guilty of no known violation of either the letter or the spirit of the election laws. He went before the people upon a plainly stated platform of progressive Republicanism. Had the Republicans won a majority of the next Congress, he would have opposed the election of Joe Cannon as speaker and he early in the campaign announced through The Herald his progressive position upon many other important issues as well."

"This Congressional district is distinctly Republican and deserves to be represented by a Republican. It would be a great wrong, were it otherwise, all the voters have so emphatically endorsed Mr. Matthews."

Keystoners Not Scold

Followers of the Keystone party have been felicitating themselves that they would occupy second place on the official ballot next year, by reason of having polled next to the highest number of votes in the State. A dispatch from Harrisburg states, however, that the Keystone party cannot occupy second place on the official ballot, either in 1911 or 1912.

Ever since the election the authorities on Capitol Hill have been besieged by questioners who wanted to know if the Keystoners will have second place, but the answer is that it will remain just where it is because the vote in a Presidential year is taken as a guide.

The Keystone party was not in existence in 1908, when the last Presidential election was held, and its vote this fall cannot give it a higher place on the ballot. Upon the vote the party polls in 1912 will depend whether it takes second place.

DISTINGUISHED OFFICER

OF RECENT BOER WAR A

Old Mexico. General DeWall settled in Texas. Two years ago he left America with sixty families for Cape Town, Africa. All but two were permitted to land. General DeWall was one of the two refused admittance because of his activity in the war. He then returned to the States and spent some time in Washington, D. C., and other large cities in the East where he lectured before large audiences. Last spring he had the misfortune to fall and break his leg and for some time was confined in a Philadelphia hospital.

The love of the mother country is strong in the breast of General DeWall and he longs for the time when he can set foot again in British South Africa without fear of intervention. Now he sees that time coming. The Boers have won out in the election for the Parliament. Outsiders voted with the Boers and they succeeded in electing every Parliament member. The British promised amnesty to all exiles of the country if this should come about. King George sent his uncle, the Duke of Connaught to Pretoria to open the Parliament personally. The session opened on November 4. In two weeks General DeWall expects word from Mr. Bryce, the British Ambassador at Washington, and has already begun making arrangements to return to South Africa.

General DeWall speaks the English language fluently and is a fine Latin scholar. He is 66 years old and a splendid type of the Boer race.

POPULAR MAN IS

SONG ARTIST AND

MUSIC COMPOSER

Donald J. Garrison, the "California Baritone," closes a successful engagement with the Palace Theatre this evening, and Monday will find him at his home in Dayton, Virginia, where a loving mother anxiously awaits the return of her boy. Both Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, who have been living in CharleROI during his engagement here, have made many friends who will be sure to see them go, and the management will lose a good attraction in this popular singer.

The personnel of Mr. Garrison appeals to all who know him, and this alone would explain why he is held by the public. Besides being a wonderful singer he is a composer of several high class songs that have already found a place in the homes of lovers of music. Mrs. Garrison accompanies her husband on all his trips and materially assists by her fine piano playing, the disposing of his musical compositions. From the qualities possessed by "Don" Garrison, a profitable lesson might be learned by others. Never in his life has he used tobacco in any form. He has never tasted strong drink. He is always careful about his eating, sleeping and a certain amount of exercise each day. The result is a happy, healthy, fine dispositioned young man, who actually compels you to like him. Donald Garrison has worked hard for the last three years and with the help of his wife has saved a nice sum of money. Now they will rest for the winter in their cozy home in Virginia, surrounded by his family who are joyfully awaiting their return.

TERRIBLE SORES

No Matter How Chronic W. F. Hennings Guarantees San Cura Ointment to Give Instant Relief and Permanent Cure

"My daughter was troubled for over a year with a fever sore on her leg, and was helpless in bed for three months. To the great surprise of all, including the four doctors who had attended her, San Cura Ointment healed the great sore in less than six weeks."—J. D. Hood, Townville, Pa.

The case of Miss Hood is only one in a thousand. No remedy ever compounded has ever produced the marvelous cures that can be attributed to San Cura Ointment.

Karl C. Banks, of the Atlantic Refining Co., of Pittsburgh, had a sore on his ankle for year. He doctor-d and tried various remedies, without relief. He says: "San Cura Ointment worked like a charm, reduced the swelling, and healed the sore in two weeks." If any reader of the Mail knows of anyone suffering from terrible sores, it is his duty to tell them of the wonderful soothing healing and antiseptic virtues of San Cura Ointment. It draws the poison from the sore, no matter how deep seated.

But bear in mind, dear reader, that besides sores, San Cura Ointment is guaranteed to cure eczema, boils, carbuncles, salt rheum, tetter, also itching, bleeding and protruding piles. AMONG THE THEATRES

The Palace—Charleroi.

Rudyard Kipling's "Vampire," which was inspired by the painting of that title by Burne-Jones the eminent British artist in as given in photoplay at the Palace Theatre this week, and was one of the strongest emotional productions ever witnessed in moving pictures. The vampire, the woman whose charms lure men to crime and destruction, and who when gloats over her victims and the ruin she has wrought, was most graphically pictured, the plot leading through two generations. Other strong features during the week were the "Taming of Wild Bill," a buccolic wild west scene, and several other comedies and travel pictures that made a delightful and varied program. This, supplemented with illustrated and spot light songs, and first-class orchestral music that plays to the pictures, continues to make the Palace a most popular resort. Capacity houses mark each performance which is changed nightly.

The Alvin—Pittsburg.

Owing to the unprecedented demand for seats for the Lew Fields big show "The Midnight Sons" at the Alvin Theatre, and the number of theatre goers who were unable to get seats during the past week, Manager Davis has concluded arrangements to continue this great attraction for another week. Besides the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees a special performance will be given Thursday, Thanksgiving afternoon.

"The Midnight Sons" is a typical Broadway show of the better class, gorgeously mounted, teeming with pretty girls and bright costumes, with a so-called plot serving as an excuse for a series of amusing specialties. It is racy enough to please the sophisticated, yet clean. The plot concerns itself with a wealthy politician named Constant Noyes, who goes on a hunting trip to Africa. To each of his four sons he gives a sum of money and promises a large bonus to the who succeeds best in business during his absence. Three of the youths promptly go broke in various ventures, but the fourth starts a hotel, his brothers takes positions as bell boys, and the whole quartet gets rich on tips. It requires two acts and eight scenes to present the story of "The Midnight Sons". Some idea of the enormity of the play may be gained from the fact that one scene alone—that the interior of the Merri Murray theatre, employs 125 supers. The cast of principals include Maude Lambert, Stella Tracy, George Monroe, George A. Schiller, Joseph M. Ratliff, Harry Fisher, Willard, Courtin, Allen Brooks, Non. J. Brennan, Mazie King, The Marvelous Millers, Gladys Moore and others.

The Nixon—Pittsburg

Miss Billie Burke will pay her third visit to Pittsburg this week the Nixon and the crowds that fell in love with her when she was here season before last in "Love Watches" are preparing to do homage to her again in "Mrs. Dot," the sparkling comedy by W. Somerset Maugham in which she is to be seen this time. Four years ago only a few people who travel had heard of Miss Burke and of the success she had scored in musical comedy in London. Then Charles Froman brought her to America to be John Drew's leading woman in "My Wife," and so great was the individual success she made in that piece that the following year Mr. Frohman made her a star in her own right and presented her in "Love Watches".

In "Love Watches," Miss Burke had the role of a little French bride. In "Mrs. Dot" she will appear as an English widow, but still youthful and beautiful. Mrs. Dot, who has been left an enormous fortune by her first husband—brewer—has fallen in love with a handsome but impetuous young aristocrat. He doesn't propose quickly enough to suit her impetuosity, so she pops the question at him and—he refuses her! Mrs. Dot isn't a wooer to be discouraged by one no. She wins him at last and the play shows how she does it. Mr. Maugham has written several delightful comedies but none more amusing and entertaining than "Mrs. Dot."

Prominent in the supporting comedy is Lawrence D'Oray, whose droll Earl of Pawtucket is still well remembered. Others in the cast are Julian L'strange, Basil Hallam, Kate Meek, Annie Esmond and Ann Meredith.

New Duquesne—Pittsburg.

A jolly Thanksgiving week feast of fun and frolic will be provided by the Harry Davis stock players at the Duquesne Theatre, next week in their highly relishable offering of that Willie Collier comedy hit, "On the Quiet." This is one of the most delightful pieces in which that genial and witty comedian has ever appeared.

"On the Quiet" was written for Mr. Collier by no less distinguished a playwright than Augustus Thomas, author of "The Witching Hour," "Arizona," "Alabama" and other celebrated classics of the American stage.

A pretty little love romance runs throughout the piece, involving a secret marriage and all sorts of comic predicaments that result from the loss of the marriage certificate. The hero, Bou Ridgeway, pretends to take a college career in order to win his rich little sweetheart. Particularly mirth provoking are the scenes of the little hotel supper party of the ballet girls and the third act adventures on the yacht Corypheus, with McGeachey's "all over board. McGeachey is a "tough citizen," who finds the lost marriage certificate and tries to turn it into a gold bond through black mail. There is also a delightful second love romance between the English Duke of Carbondale and an American heiress. Albert Morrison will play the Willie Collier role of Bob Ridgeway; Mary Hall will be his secret bride, Agnes Colt; Dennis Harris, the Duke of Carbondale, who is so bothered by American puns, and all the company will have fine character bits in the other roles of the cast. There will be a special Thanksgiving matinee.

The Grand—Pittsburg

Rose Pitonof, the young woman who is to give swimming and diving exhibitions in a huge tank on the stage of the Grand next week enjoys the distinction of being the only member of her sex in the world who has ever accomplished the hitherto supposed impossible feat of swimming from Charlestown Bridge to Boston Light, in Boston Harbor. This achievement was obtained last August. Annette Kelleman had tried it previously but failed to reach the goal. The Pitonof girl is only 15 years of age.

Vaudeville's most elaborate musical offering is said to be the Courtiers, composed of ten musicians. These in Colonial costume give concert of vocal and instrumental music. Kalmer and Brown, one of the most gifted dancing duos, is engaged for the ensuing week. Albert Holt, the gifted soprano, who had the distinction of having been engaged to sing at King Edward's funeral, is another attraction. Victor Niblo's famous talking birds, will also be exploited. Other attractions are George Austin Moore, a gifted comedian, Howard's musical ponies and comedy dogs, Gordon and Harx, German dialect comedians, and the three Livingstons in grotesque novelty comedy.

Buying Food by Mail

A recent development of the mail order business is the buying by mail of food. This system was inaugurated in this section last fall by McCann and Co., of Pittsburg, who sold 10-pound pails of Butterine at $2.90. The effort was so successful that they have decided to extend their plan this year.

As before, they will send you a 10 pound pail of finest Creamery Butterine at $2.00. As this is regular 23c Butterine, and cheap at that; you save 30c on each order.

Offer No. 2 includes the 10-pound pail of Butterine and 5 lbs of 25c Coffee, which they ship for $3.00, saving you 55c on the order.

The third offer takes 10 lbs of Butterine, 5 lbs of 25c Coffee and 1 lb of 60c Tea all for $3.50, or a saving of 85 cents.

A fourth offer includes the 10 lbs of Butterine and 3 lbs of 40c Tea at $3.00, or a saving of 50 c. Take your choice of Ceylon, English Breakfast, Assam, Olong, Japan or Young Hyson teas.

These values are guaranteed and are certain to please you. Send cash for a trial order to McCann and Co., Pittsburg, Pa. They pay express charges to Charleroi and vicinity.

Savings Deposits in the

Per Capita Share of Interest

—Good Increase During Past Six Months.

In view of the aspersions cast upon Charleroi during the past campaign, because of it being the home of Governor-elect J. K. Tener, something is needed to disprove these detractions, and it is found in the statement of the three Charleroi banks, all of which are institutions of the most substantial kind. These statements which were made at the close of business this week, show that contrary to the assertions of dyspeptic newspapers, this is not a place inhabited chiefly by booze drinkers, who spend their hard earned money in the saloons, but a town whose population is composed largely of thrifty, saving people.

The savings departments of the banks are leading features of the business here. On interest at the present time, as shown by the statements of the First National Bank, the Bank of Charleroi and the Charleroi Savings and Trust company, is the sum of $1,322,757.03. This represents the savings of the 10,000 or more people composing the population of Charleroi, and means a per capita savings of $132.27.

During the past six months there has been a substantial gain in the money placed on deposit to bear interest. The Bank of Charleroi made a gain of about $25,000 and both the First National bank and the Charleroi Savings and Trust company made gains of approximately $25,000. This shows a total gain in deposits of $75,000 interest bearing money.

Charleroi banks rank high among other institutions in the country, and it is entirely due to the wise and careful methods of banking. The officers and directors are all well known and trusted business men, fully competent to handle the money placed in their care.

Episcopal Service

Owing to the visiting clergyman's inability to keep his engagement here tomorrow, "Missionary Rally Day," and the fact that it was impossible for Rev. Shey to find an extra supply for this emergency, the services at St. Mary's church will be read morning and evening by a regularly licensed lay reader, J. B. White. It will be necessary for Rev. Shey to keep his appointment. However, a stirring missionary address will be delivered at St. Mary's church by a prominent Pittsburgh clergyman the first Sunday in December, instead of tomorrow as previously arranged.

MINER COMES TO THE DEFENSE OF FEEHAN IN STRONG ARTICLE

Says That the Miners Cannot Rely Upon Radical Pittsburg Newspaper for True Statements of Facts.

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

Sir:—The Pittsburg Leader, one of the supposed supporters of the workingman, a rank traitor which is masquerading as a friend to labor, when in reality it is being paid by the operators of the Irwin field at this time to vilify President Feehan, and the present administration. The Leader has become famous as an advocate of justice. It did good work for the miners in the Irwin field in exposing the tyranny of the coal operators in that particular field. But when the operators got a hold on it the press was throttled as far as any news coming from the strike zone was concerned, for we have had no news from the Irwin field for several weeks. Many of our miners have been wondering why this silence. The reason is very plain as is stated above. President Feehan was offered $10,000 and later $40,000 and further to name his price, but he refused to be bribed. He was then told that thousands of dollars would be spent to defeat him, and that he would be discredited by the press of which the Leader seems to be the one which has been given the contract. I have been a reader of the Leader for the last six years, but from now on I am through with it and its circulation will be greatly reduced in the future as far as our miners are concerned.

Yours for a square deal,
A Miner.

"I highly appreciate the excellent work that was done in my behalf by my staunch and loyal friends at the recent election, and sincerely thank every voter who cast his vote in my behalf on Tuesday, November 8. I shall be a staunch supporter of honest government. Equal rights shall be my motto. I shall stand for those things that believe to be right, and for the greatest good to the greatest number."

"I wish to thank my friends among organized labor for their unselfish work in my behalf, and shall try to make my course in Harrisburg such as will cause them no regret for the splendid support they gave me."

Operators Discover Repairs Are Necessary in Workings.

SAFETY LAMPS REQUESTED

The Cincinnati mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company closed yesterday for an indefinite time, according to the statements of the company for the making of repairs. Recently the fire bosses of the mines made an appeal for the use of safety lamps in the mine, it being stated that there was considerable gas in the workings, and therefore without safety lamps being used, there was considerable danger. There was some talk over the matter, which finally ended in the mine being closed.

MEN OF CHURCH BANQUET

Methodists Hold Interesting Social Affair.

GOOD ADDRESSES MADE

With about 84 men present, partly representing Methodism in Charleroi, a banquet was held Friday night in the Sunday School rooms of the M. E. church. The affair was arranged by the official board of the church in an effort to stimulate the work that the church is doing here and to increase the interest among the male members of the congregation.

H. J. Booth was the toastmaster and after the good things prepared by members of the Ladies League had been disposed of, opened the program with an address, in which he spoke of the opportunities for the men, and reviewed conditions from a business man's standpoint. He called upon J. A. Hepler, who made a report of the treasury, and upon T. Lindsay who made a steward's report. Rev. John H. Miller, the district superintendent of the Pittsburgh conference, then made a masterful address in which he spoke of the many things which the men should do, and following the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" Rev. Harry N. Cameron, pastor of the First Methodist church at Washington, spoke. He was followed in turn by the local pastor, Rev. F. A. Richards, and Rev. Lyons, the latter a pastor at Roscoe. Short talks were given by C. C. Crill, John Rodgers and W. A. Swick.

General Epke Rolf De-
wall, of Boer Army Visiting America for a Number of Weeks.

TOSPEAK AT TURNER HALL

Was Exiled From South Africa at the Close of War and is Daily Expecting Word to Return.

A distinguished visitor is registered at the Hotel Myford today. This is General Epke Rolf DeWall, an ex-commander and survivor of the Boer war, a statesman and an exile. General DeWall will remain in Charleroi over Sunday and will deliver a lecture tonight at Turner Hall for the entertainment of the members and their families. The lecture will be delivered in German.

This sturdy Dutch soldier and statesman is a nephew of Ex-President Paul Kruger and General Peter Hubert, of the South African Republic, and descendant of one of the eighteen original families that left Europe in 1603 and went to South Africa in an effort to find a country where they could worship God in accordance with their faith. His father helped to frame the original constitution of the Boer Republic, and his ancestors were always among those who were pressed backward by the encroachments of the English.

General DeWall was educated in Germany and received the degree of M. D. at the Heidelberg University. At the outbreak of the war he was a member of the Boer Parliament and Secretary of State. His promotion was rapid in the army and he soon attained to the rank of General. He was wounded four times. November 2, eleven years ago, he rode into a body of British lancers, who had dismounted and were waiting in ambush. He turned when he discovered his danger, but the lancers mounted and charged and he was wounded in the leg and his horse shot from under him and he was taken prisoner. He lost four sons, his wife and two daughters during the war. His sons died in battle and his wife and daughters in concentration camps established by the British, where he claims they were subjected to unspeakable indignities at the hands of the soldiers.

After the war General DeWall was one of about 3,000 Boers who would not take the oath of allegiance to the British government. They were exiled from the country and aided by the Red Cross Society of Europe and America, came to the New World, and settled in Texas, New Mexico and (Continued on Second Page).

No Grounds for Contest

Speaking of the avowed intention of Henry H. Wilson, the defeated Democratic Keystone candidate for Congress to contest the seat of Charles Matthews, the Republican candidate who was elected, the New Castle Herald says:

"Attorney Henry Wilson of Beaver county, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Twenty-fourth district, who was defeated at the polls by Congressman-elect Charles Matthews of this city, announces that he will contest the result and lay the matter before the Sixty-third Congress. All this makes very interesting reading, but Mr. Wilson is probably just talking to get it out of his system, rather than with any real intention of actually attempting any such thing.

"For there is no ground upon which he could make a successful contest. Charles Matthews was guilty of no known violation of either the letter or the spirit of the election laws. He went before the people upon a plain, stated platform of progressive Republicanism. Had the Republicans won a majority of the elect Congress, he would have opposed the election of Joe Cannon as speaker and he early in the campaign announced through the Herald his progressive position upon many other important issues as well.

"This Congressional district is distinctly Republican and deserves to be represented by a Republican. It would be a great wrong, were it otherwise, after the voters have so emphatically endorsed Mr.
Matthews."

Keystoners Not Second

Followers of the Keystone party have been felicitating themselves that they would occupy second place on the official ballot next year, by reason of having polled next to the highest number of votes in the State. A dispatch from Harrisburg states, however, that the Keystone party cannot occupy second place on the official ballot, either in 1911 or 1912.

Ever since the election the authorities on Capitol Hill have been besieged by questioners who wanted to know if the Keystoners will have second place, but the answer is that it will remain just where it is because the vote in a Presidential year is taken as a guide.

The Keystone party was not in existence in 1903, when the last Presidential election was held, and its vote this fall cannot give it a higher place on the ballot. Upon the vote the party polls in 1912 will depend whether it takes second place.

DISTINGUISHED OFFICER
OF RECENT BOER WAR A

Old Mexico. General DeWall settled in Texas. Two years ago he left America with sixty families for Cape Town, Africa. All but two were permitted to land. General DeWall was one of the two refused admittance because of his activity in the war.
He then returned to the States and spent some time in Washington, D.
C., and other large cities in the East where he lectured before large audiences. Last spring he had the misfortune to fall and break his leg and for some time was confined in a Philadelphia hospital.

The love of the mother country is strong in the breast of General DeWall and he longs for the time when he can set foot again in British South Africa without fear of intervention. Now he sees that time coming. The Boers have won out in the election for the Parliament.
Outsiders voted with the Boers and they succeeded in electing every Parliament member. The British promised amnesty to all exiles of the country if this should come about.
King George sent his uncle, the Duke of Connaught to Pretoria to open the Parliament personally. The session opened on November 4. In two weeks General DeWall expects word from Mr. Bryce, the British Ambassador at Washington, and has already begun making arrangements to return to South Africa.

General DeWall speaks the English language fluently and is a fine Latin scholar. He is 66 years old and a splendid type of the Boer race.

POPULAR MAN IS SONG ARTIST AND MUSIC COMPOSER

Donald J. Garrison, the "California Baritone," closes a successful engagement with the Palace Theatre this evening, and Monday will find him at his home in Dayton, Virginia, where a loving mother anxiously awaits the return of her boy. Both Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, who have been living in Charlevoi during his engagement here, have made many friends who will be sorry to see them go, and the management will lose a good attraction in this popular singer.

The personnel of Mr. Garrison appeals to all who know him, and this alone would explain why he is held by the public. Besides being a wonderful singer he is a composer of several high class songs that have already found a place in the homes of lovers of music. Mrs. Garrison accompanies her husband on all his trips and materially assists by her fine piano playing, the disposing of his musical compositions. From the qualities possessed by "Don" Garrison, a profitable lesson might be learned by others. Never in his life has he used tobacco in any form. He has never tasted strong drink. He is always careful about his eating, sleeping and a certain amount of exercise each day.
The result is a happy, healthy, fine dispositioned young man, who actually compels you to like him. Donald Garrison has worked hard for the last three years and with the help of his wife has saved a nice sum of money.
Now they will rest for the winter in their cozy home in Virginia, surrounded by his family who are joyfully awaiting their return.

ed and tried various remedies, without two weeks." If any reader of the terrible sores, it is his duty to tell them of the wonderful soothing heal-

the sore, no matter how deep seated.

Temporary Heat Quickly

Did you ever stop to think of the many ways in which a perfect oil heater is of value? If you want to sleep with your window open in winter, you can get sufficient heat from an oil heater while you undress at night, and then turn it off. Apply a match in the morning, when you get out of bed, and you have heat while you dress.

Those who have to eat an early breakfast before the stove is radiating heat can get immediate warmth from an oil heater, and then turn it off. The girl who practices on the piano in a cold room in the morning can have warmth from an oil heater while she plays, and then turn it off. The member of the family who has to walk the floor on a cold winter's night with a restless baby can get temporary heat with an oil heater, and then turn it off. The is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. Apply a match and it is immediately at work. It will burn for nine hours without refilling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. It has a damper top and a cool handle. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be quickly unscrewed for reworking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

AMONG THE THEATRES

The Palace—Charleroi.

Kudyard Kipling's "Vampire," which was inspired by the painting of that title by Burne-Jones the eminent British artist in as given in photoplay at the Palace Theatre this week, and was one of the strongest emotional productions ever witnessed in moving pictures. The vampire, the woman whose charms lure men to crime and destruction, and who when gloats over her victims and the ruin she has wrought, was most graphically pictured, the plot leading through two generations. Other strong features during the week were the "Taming of Wild Bill," a buccolic wild west scene, and several other comedies and travel pictures that made a delightful and varied program. This, supplemented with illustrated and spot light songs, and first-class orchestral music that plays to the pictures, continues to make the Palace a most popular resort. Capacity houses mark each performance which is changed nightly.

The Alvin—Pittsburg.

Owing to the unprecedented demand for seats for the Lew Fields big show "The Midnight Sons" at the Alvin Theatre, and the number of theatre goers who were unable to get seats during the past week, Manager Davis has concluded arrangements to continue this great attraction for another week. Besides the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees a special performance will be given Thursday, Thanksgiving afternoon.

"The Midnight Sons" is a typical Broadway show of the better class, gorgeously mounted, teeming with pretty girls and bright costumes, with a so-called plot serving as an excuse for a series of amusing specialties. It is racy enough to please the sophisticated, yet clean. The plot concerns itself with a wealthy politician named Constant Noyes, who goes on a hunting trip to Africa. To each of his four sons he gives a sum of money and promises a large bonus to the who succeeds best in business during his absence. Three of the youths promptly go broke in various ventures, but the fourth starts a hotel, his brothers takes positions as bell boys, and the whole quartet gets rich on tips. It requires two acts and eight scenes to present the story of "The Midnight Sons". Some idea of the enormity go the play may be gained from the fact that one scene alone—that the interior of the Merri Murray theatre, employs 125 supers. The cast of principals include Maude Lambert, Stella Tracy, George Monroe, George A. Schiller, Joseph M. Ratliff, Harry Fisher, Willard, Courtill, Allen Brooks, Non. J. Brennan, Mazie King, The Marvelous Millers, Gladys Moore and others.

The Nixon—Pittsburg.

Miss Billie Burke will pay her third visit to Pittsburg this week the Nixon and the crowds that fell in love with her when she was here season before last in "Love Watches" are preparing to do homage to her again in "Mrs. Dot," the sparkling comedy by W. Somerset Maugham in which she is to be seen this time.

Four years ago only a few people who travel had heard of Miss Burke and of the success she had scored in musical comedy in London. Then Charles Froman brought her to America to be John Drew's leading woman in "My Wife," and so great was the individual success she made in that piece that the following year Mr. Frohman made her a star in her own right and presented her in "Love Watches".

In "Love Watches," Miss Burke had the role of a little French bride. In "Mrs. Dot" she will appear as an English widow, but still youthful and beautiful. Mrs. Dot, who has been left an enormous fortune by her first husband—brewer—has fallen in love with a handsome but impecunious young aristocrat. He doesn't propose quickly enough to suit her impetuosity, so she pops the question at him and—he refuses her! Mrs. Dot isn't a wooer to be discouraged by one no. She wins him at last and the play shows how she does it. Mr. Maugham has written several delightful comedies but none more amusing and entertaining than "Mrs. Dot."

Prominent in the supporting comedy is Lawrence D'Oroz, whose droll Earl of Pawtucket is still well remembered. Others in the cast are Julian L'strange, Basil Hellam, Kate Meek, Annie Esmond and Ann Merdith.

New Duquesne—Pittsburg.

A jolly Thanksgiving week feast of fun and frolic will be provided by the Harry Davis stock players at the Duquesne Theatre, next week in their highly reliable offering of that Willie Collier comedy hit, "On the Quiet." This is one of the most delightful pieces in which that genial and witty comedian has ever appeared.

"On the Quiet" was written for Mr. Collier by no less distinguished a playwright than Augustus Thomas, author of "The Witching Hour," "Arizona," "Alabama" and other celebrated classics of the American drama.

A pretty little love romance runs throughout the piece, involving a secret marriage and all sorts of comic predicaments that result from the loss of the marriage certificate. The hero, Bob Ridgeway, pretends to take a college career in order to win his rich little sweetheart. Particularly mirth provoking are the scenes of the little hotel supper party of the ballet girls and the third act adventures on the yacht Coryphee, with McGeachey's fall over board. McGeachey is a "tough citizen," who finds the lost marriage certificate and tries to turn it into a gold bond through black mail. There is also a delightful second love romance between the English Duke of Carbondale and an American heiress. Albert Morrison will play the Willie Collier role of Bob Ridgeway; Mary Hall will be his secret bride, Agnes Colt; Dennis Harris, the Duke of Carbondale, who is so bothered by American puns, and all the company will have fine character bits in the other roles of the cast. There will be a special Thanksgiving matinee.

The Grand—Pittsburg.

Rose Pitonof, the young woman who is to give swimming and diving exhibitions in a huge tank on the stage of the Grand next week enjoys the distinction of being the only member of her sex in the world who has ever accomplished the hitherto supposed impossible feat of swimming from Charlestown Bridge to Boston Light, in Boston Harbor. This achievement was obtained last August. Annette Kelleman had tried it previously but failed to reach the goal. The Pitonof girl is only 15 years of age.

Vaudeville's most elaborate musical offering is said to be the Courtiers, composed of ten musicians. These in Colonial costume give concretes of vocal and instrumental music. Kalmer and Brown, one of the most gifted dancing duos, is engaged for the ensuing week. Albert Holt, the gifted soprano, who had the distinction of having been engaged to sing at King Edward's funeral, is another attraction. Victor Niklo's famous talking birds, will also be exploited. Other attractions are George Austin Moore, a gifted comedian, Howard's musical ponies and comedy dogs, Gordon and Harx, German dialect comedians, and the three Livingstons in grotesque novelty comedy.

Buying Food by Mail

A recent development of the mail order business is the buying by mail of food. This system was inaugurated in this section last fall by McCann and Co., of Pittsburg, who sold 10-pound pails of Butterine at $2.00. The effort was so successful that they have decided to extend their plan this year.

As before, they will send you a 10 pound pail of finest Creamery Butterine at $2.00. As this is regular 23c Butterine, and cheap at that; you save 30c on each order.

Offer No. 2 includes the 10-pound pail of Butterine and 5 lbs of 25c Coffee, which they ship for $3.00, saving you 55c on the order.

The third offer takes 10 lbs of Butterine, 5 lbs of 25c Coffee and 1 lb of 60c Tea all for $3.50, or a saving of 85 cents.

A fourth offer includes the 10 lbs of Butterine and 3 lbs of 40c Tea at $3.00, or a saving of 50 c. Take your choice of Ceylon, English Breakfast, Assam, Olong, Japan or Young Hyson teas.

These values are guaranteed and are certain to please you. Send cash for a trial order to McCann and Co., Pittsburg, Pa. They pay express charges to Charleroi and vicinity.
